FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Fatherhood is God's plan for the benefit of the human race. Genesis' writer names them as co-creators: "Increase and multiply." Priests are fathers because they generate children for the Kingdom through rebirth: "make disciples."

According to St. Paul, father is the head of the family. Their patron is St. Joseph whose role consisted in nourishing life bodily and enriching it spiritually. Children need their fathers for guidance and the Church needs their support to keep religious faith strong through fidelity to the Gospel.

May the Lord inspire courage and bless the fathers of our Parish Family as they fulfill their vocation at home, church, and society.

Please pray for the following:

Bishop Ernest Leger, Rachelle Caroll, Lise Martin, Tim Dooling, Anna Karolewicz, Louise Jarvis,
Fr. Bob Bedard.

Please send an e-mail to our office if you know of someone who is sick and needs to be prayed for:

SUNDAY REFLECTION

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Father's Day

First Reading, Zechariah 12:10-11, 13:1

Zechariah prophesies a time of great mourning.

Psalm 63

A psalm of longing to return to a close relationship with God

Second Reading, Galatians 3:26-29

For the baptized, union with Christ goes beyond all boundaries.

Gospel, Luke 9:18-24

Jesus asks his disciples, "Who do you say I am?"

This reading will sound very familiar. The account of Peter's profession of faith is central to the three synoptic gospels, Matthew, Mark and Luke. Each evangelist presents this story in a way that fits in with his own way of narrating the gospel. Luke reserves ten chapters of his gospel for the journey of Jesus from Galilee to Jerusalem. Later in chapter 9, from which today's gospel is taken, Jesus will set out on the road to Jerusalem, his journey to the cross and resurrection. Before this Jesus questions his disciples on their understanding of his mission, and gives his first warning to them that he is destined to suffer and die. Peter's profession of faith in Jesus as the Messiah, the Christ, is told with great simplicity. As in the Gospel of Mark, Jesus' response is to command silence about his role. Jesus is unwilling to be drawn into popularity as the leader of a freedom movement. There is furthermore no commendation of Peter for his faith in Jesus, as appears when Matthew tells this story. Luke has other things to emphasise. Jesus is called to give his life for others. This will be his path to new life. This path is to be followed not only by the disciples but by 'all'. For all of us the path to life will be marked by suffering, but Jesus has gone this way before us and he will bring us to the life of the resurrection.

Who do you say Christ is? Is it really possible to consider suffering as a gift?

Let us pray for those whose sufferings seem too hard to bear. Let us pray for those who seek to alleviate the pain of others, whether physical or mental.
